Did you know?

The creek that flowed through TSS back in 1901 was nicknamed Pong Creek by the students because Housemaster Arthur Thorold used to bathe in the water near his boat and made the creek smell “pongie.”