Did you know?

The unique statue, The Boy and the Dove, is a symbol of peace and the endeavour of youth to send a message of peace to the world. It was presented to the school by the St Alban's Art Festival Committee on 18 November, 1983. The sculptor of this piece of work was Anthony William Palmer. Palmer was born in London in 1937 and migrated to Australia in 1971.