The Lost Sheep Sculpture

In May 1990 the Reverend Jim Stonier unveiled The Lost Sheep. In 1982 the school had held a section on sculpture and invited sculptors to submit their work and the school would choose a piece to buy. The first sculpture chosen was the Boy and the Dove, but the Lost Sheep cast in bronze, haunted some staff and it was purchased some years later.

The sculpture was created by two Queensland artists, Kath and Len Shillam who won an Order of Australia in 1986 for their contribution to sculpture.
